dolkii

Two sisters in Hawaii, Shaiyanne Dar and Yasmin Dar Fasi, are the duo behind DOLKII, an online boutique. Evolving from an online fashion blog in 2013, DOLKII is a boho-inspired boutique with collections that combine the sister's exotic South-East Asian background with their love of fashion.

DOLKII is excited to debut their private label designed in Hawaii and made in Los Angeles. Each silhouette was created to allow DOLKII girls to channel their free-spirit style and make each piece their own. DOLKII the Label, can be found at www.dolkii.com.

Boutique Sharon

Boutique Sharon is owned and operated by Joe Jeong for the past 40 years. He was born in Japan and grew up in Korea. His love for clothing inspired him to open Boutique Sharon shops featuring the lines of Harari, Anne Namba, Italian clothiers, and other Hawaiian artists. Currently, Mr. Jeong has 6 Boutique Sharon shops throughout Waikiki, also featuring Pandora jewelry, which he designs.

Kaypee Soh, artist and designer, was inspired at an early age by textures and colors that exist in the natural world. He attended college in London and graduated with a degree in graphic design and then explored the fashion worlds of Canada and New York.

In 2004, Hawaii became his home, as the islands reminded him of his youth growing up in Malaysia. Kaypee is the co-founder of Somace Design, a branding and design company collaborating with architects and interior designers.

In 2014, Kaypee introduced his inaugural women's fashion collection and quickly became the "go-to" designer. Today, Kaypee is branding women's wear and accessories, handbags, tees, a men's line, home décor with bedding, pillows and area rugs.
